AECASSOWARY/2 presented a request for a 5% across-the-board increase, effective 1 July 1965, in the salaries of AEBEEHIVE employees, as recommended by the AEBEEHIVE Board of Directors, with the exception of the two newest employees, A/56 and A/58, for whom a 10% increase was proposed. In addition, a 5% increase in the overall amount paid for Munich offices salaries was proposed, the amount of increase for each individual employee to be decided in Munich by A/30, the chief editor, and A/3, a member of the AEBEEHIVE Board of Directors.

Although Paul and I both initially felt A/29 merited a higher increase and that the salary paid A/4 has perhaps reached its maximum level, we feel obliged to go along with A/2's arguments that he and the board carefully studied each individual employees contribution to the AEBBEHIVE and AECASSOWARY/1 institutions and that the increases as proposed are justified.
